Membership, Kathleen Azzarello reported:

We have 134 OPHC memberships to date.

Youth Club, No report

Youth Scholarship, Roger Taylor reported:

The online scholarship application will be advertised on social media and the OPHC website. The recipients will be invited to the OPHC Awards Banquet.

Amateur Club, Tim Snapp reported for Sue Johnson:

The Amateur Club show will be held in Eaton, Ohio in 2024.

Ride Ohio, Elaine Bennet reported:

2023 hours need to be submitted by the riders. They are hoping to have more APHA horses involved in the program in 2024 and will have their trail ride date soon. Elaine requested a budget for awards. Charlene Schanarr won the free OPHC membership at the 2023 trail ride. A special award (chair) will be purchased and awarded to riders who have reached 2500 hours (Elaine Bennet has reached this milestone so far.) Update the Ride Ohio rules: #6 "that is not in an arena."

Tim Snapp reported:

Ashland, Ohio looks to be the most promising location for the Border Bash Show. For 2024, the Midwest Connection Series shows will now be solely hosted by the state club the show is held in. Since the show is no longer a joint show, we will call it the Buckeye Bonanza Bash.

Tim also discussed applying for the APHA Chrome Cash program for this show. If chosen as the recipient, Ohio will supply $5,000 in added money and APHA will match $5,000 to be awarded at the show for various classes.

- Motion to hold the Buckeye Bonanza Bash in Ashland, Ohio July 20-21, 2024, as one of the Midwest Connection Series Shows.
  - Motioned by: Heather Collins
  - Seconded by: Tim Dawson
  - Motion Passed
- Motion to apply for APHA's matching Chrome Cash program for the 2024 Buckeye Bonanza show.
  - Motioned by: Heather Collins
  - Seconded by: Roxann Rohrl
  - Motion Passed

Adjournment
